Father's Day

Today is great day to spend some time thinking about our fathers. For some of you your father has been gone for many years, for other's your father is as close as your best friend. We all have different stories to tell as to how our father's raised us and how we as father's raised our own kids. It can get complicated sometimes but it's one of the most important relationships we have.

Today's questions are going to allow us to get to know a little about the fathers of our 242 group members. Have fun remembering and if you are still blessed to have your father in your life, call him!

1. What images spring to mind when you hear the word 'father'?
2. Can you describe your father in one word? Why that word?

3. Did your father spend a lot of time with you when you were a child?
4. Do you always buy your father a present on Father's Day?
5. In what ways do you take after your father?
6. What is your father's biggest fault?
7. Is your father more like a father or a best friend?
8. If you are separated from your father, by death or any other reasons, and you could talk to him today for 10 minutes, what would you talk about?
